

Modals

A Complete the sentences with can, can't, could or couldn't.

- When he was young, my grandfather ...could run... (run) 12 kilometres.
- John can't run very fast but he (jump) high.
- you (finish) your homework last week?
- The dog hurt its leg and it (walk).
- Tony (find) his way to the party tonight?
- Sorry I (not help) you paint your house yesterday.

B Write sentences using the words below and must or mustn't.

- ride / your bike / on the grass
You mustn't ride your bike on the grass.

- drive fast / near the school
.....
.....

- take / your medicine / now
.....
.....

- drink / a lot of water / in the summer
.....
.....

- put / your feet / on the desk
.....
.....

- bring / animals / into the shop
.....
.....

C Write sentences with should or shouldn't.

- It's late. (go home now)
You should go home now......
- These sports shoes are expensive. (buy them)
.....
- You didn't practise for the event. (take part in the competition)
.....
- Tim doesn't like his job. (get another job)
.....
- Sally is not well. (go to school today)
.....
- It's snowing. (wear a coat and boots)
.....