

Describing Rooms and Furniture

These activities are to help you review vocabulary for the speaking part of the exam, where you will be asked to describe a photograph.

1. Look at the picture below. Then read the text and correct the mistakes. There are four mistakes.

This is a photo of a living room. In the foreground I can see a coffee table. On top of the table there is a mug and some books. There are two sofas. Each sofa has two black and white cushions on it. Between the sofas there is a table with a lamp under it. In front of the sofas there is a rug in the floor. Behind the sofa on the right there is a black bookcase. In the bookcase there is some books and a box. Next to the bookcase there is a painting of an aeroplane. In the background I can see a window with a view of a garden.

2. Look at the photograph, then complete the gaps in the following text.

This is a photo of a _____. I can see a _____ bed with purple sheets and a blue and white pillow. Above the bed there are two _____. To the right of the bed there is a black _____ with a white lamp on top of it. In front of the bed I can see a rug. To the left of the bed there is a chest of drawers. On top of the chest of drawers there is a _____.

3. Look at the following photos. For each photo, write a short paragraph describing what you can see. Use the "Describing Photographs" document and the B1 vocabulary list to help you.

