

1 How is each speaker feeling? Match the sentences with the words for emotions.

Alex: I played in a concert and everyone said I was great!

- 1 Sam: I bought expensive concert tickets but the concert wasn't good.
- 2 Anna: I have a history exam tomorrow and I haven't studied enough for it.
- 3 Ethan: Help! That big dog is going to bite me!
- 4 Maya: I feel sure I can win this tennis match.
- 5 Evan: Mmmm, it's lovely here on the sofa with my book.
- 6 Erin: Oh, everything is horrible and I'm going back to bed!

confident disappointed miserable nervous proud relaxed scared

2 Finish the sentences with words built from perform. Use three of these endings:

-ed -er -ing -ance -ist

- 1 The actor gives a fantastic _____ in the new film.
- 2 Fiona is an excellent _____.
- 3 The team _____ well in yesterday's football match.

3 The young man in the photo is a musician. He's going to give a piano performance tomorrow evening. How do you think he's feeling?

2 Sarah tells him ...

- A he's a talented musician so he must perform tomorrow.
B he has talent but he doesn't have to perform tomorrow.

5 Listen to the conversation again. Tick the facts and opinions that you hear.

Tips

Read the sentences very carefully. A speaker may say something which is sounds similar to what you have read but you should only tick a sentence if you are sure you have heard someone state the opinion or fact.

4 Listen to a conversation between a music student called Owen and a teacher, Sarah. Choose the best ending for each sentence, A or B.

- 1 Owen is feeling bad because ...
 - A there's a concert tomorrow and he's nervous about playing in it.
 - B he's playing in a concert tomorrow but not many people are going to it.
- 2 Owen plays everything perfectly when he performs.
- 3 Owen didn't play at the summer concert last year.
- 4 Sarah is able to play the piano.
- 5 She always plays very well in college concerts.
- 6 The other students are not as confident as Owen believes.
- 7 Owen has played in some small concerts before.
- 8 Owen can still choose to play in the concert tomorrow.